TULIP VARIETIES OF NOTE

| TULIP VARIETIES CULTIVATED FROM NATIVE SPECIES OF TÜRKIYE | |
|---|--|
|  | Tulipa acuminata A tulip variety that is cultivated from native species with origins in Turkiye, the Tulipa acuminata (pictured left) has long, pointed petals that are a mixture of red and yellow, normally with more yellow towards the base and red towards the tips. It looks markedly different from the conventional cup-shape that most people associate with tulips. Similar varieties with this unique form in Tulipmania: Origins of the Tulip include Tulipa Go Go Red and Tulipa Fly Away. This is the first time that Gardens by the Bay is bringing in such tulip varieties. |
| CROWN TULIPS | |
|  | Tulipa Red Dress Crown tulips are a variety of tulip that Gardens by the Bay is bringing in for the first time. Such tulips are identifiable by their crown-shaped flowers. Tulipa Red Dress was chosen for its rich merlot color and long-lasting bloom. |

LILY-FLOWERED TULIPS

Tulipa Claudia

Tulipa Claudia is a lily-flowered tulip with goblet-shaped flowers and pointed petals that are beetroot purple, with a dark purple flush at the base and white edges.

Tulipa Flashback

This lily-flowered tulip has pure bright yellow flowers that stand out in the flower field.

Tulipa Pretty Woman

Tulipa Pretty Woman is a lily-flowered tulip that has bright red, goblet-shaped flowers with pointed petals and a faint sweet scent.

STANDARD TULIPS

Tulipa Arjuna

Tulipa Arjuna is deep orange in colour, with small streaks of purple and green.

Tulipa Grand Perfection

Tulipa Grand Perfection is a cream coloured tulip with unique deep red feathering on its petals, a trait that was deliberately created by breeders to mimic the variegated pattern of broken coloured tulips, which was itself the result of a virus.

Tulipa Hermitage

Tulipa Hermitage has large, cup-shaped fragrant orange flowers with striking splashes of maroon.

Gardens
by the Bay

Tulipa Gabriela

This tulip has large, soft pink flowers with paler edges.

Get Crafty! - Zentangle Tulip Painting on Diatomite Coaster by ArtPeaceSG

This Tulipmania season, discover the art of Zentangle, where you will learn to create stunning images using structured patterns. The 15 minute-session will see you crafting your very own Zentangle Tulip on a coaster made of diatomite, a naturally occurring sedimentary rock that is not only eco-friendly but also provides a porous surface perfect for absorbing any moisture and keeping your coaster dry. Using micro pens, vibrant watercolour pencils and brushes, you'll learn how to bring your tulip to life.

Date: Saturday, May 6 and Sunday, May 7

Time: 10am to 6pm (15mins per participant)

Activity Fee: $12, includes activity materials.

Venue: Australian Garden in Flower Dome

A Flower Dome ticket is required and must be purchased separately.
